Eminent Doctors Praise Its Ingredients.

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Dead Woman and Starved Child.

A policeman who had been summoned by a frightened woman broke in the door of a tiny three-room apartment on the third floor of the house at 4204 Third avenue, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon. A horrible sight confronted him. Stretched upon the floor of the little kitchen was the decomposing body of an elderly woman. At her side lay a baby boy, or rather a living skeleton of a baby boy, too weak to move his clawlike little hands, but still able to cry out his misery in a feeble thread of pitiable sound.

The woman had been dead for days, possibly for more than five days. The child, less than 14 months old, had literally polished the low-lying shelves of the open cupboard in his efforts to find food. The survivor of this grewsome tragedy of a locked-in flat was hurried to the Norwegian Hospital. He was made of sturdy stuff, for, despite thirst and starvation, he is mending, and the surgeons say he will live. Probably no boy of his age ever passed through more and endured it.

The dead woman on the kitchen floor was Mrs. Catherine Dinan, a hard-working widow, approaching her sixtieth birthday. Since her husband's death she had lived alone in the little back rooms of the house on Third avenue until a few months ago, when she adopted John out of the Guardian Angels' Home, in Bay Ridge. She always said she meant to bring the youngster up for the priesthood, and to him she gave all the mother love and care that she could have given any child of her own flesh and blood.

It is believed that when the woman arose Saturday morning she was taken with a heart trouble, and died where she had dropped upon her face without a struggle. She had not been seen by any of her neighbors after Friday afternoon.

Stensland, the Embezzler.

The Hamburg American liner Prinz Adelbert, which will arrive today in New York, will bring Paul O. Stensland, formerly President of the Milwaukee Avenue Bank, of Chicago, who was captured in Tangier, Morocco, charged with the embezzlement of more than $1,000,000.

Waiting for him in New York will be his son, Theodore Stensland, and Assistant State's Attorney Olsen, of Chicago—waiting, but not together. Young Stensland wants to get hold of his father in order to prevent him from going to Chicago voluntarily and to fight the extradition proceedings. Olsen's object is to rush the prisoner off to Chicago as quickly as possible.

Detective Kinder, who accompanies Olsen, has extradition papers from Governor Stokes, of New Jersey, and permission to rush Stensland immediately to Chicago. It is said that a yacht may meet the Prinz Adelbert at Quarantine and take the prisoner aboard and hurry him to a Chicago train.

This Stensland's son will try to prevent. He believes, he says, that his father is innocent and cannot get a fair trial in Cook county.

Governor Higgins was asked yesterday if he had agreed upon the application of the Illinois authorities to issue his warrant for the return to Chicago of Paul Stensland. Governor Higgins said that the warrant had not yet been issued because it was not certain whether Stensland would land in New York or in New Jersey. If he lands in New York the Governor declared that he would issue the warrant so that Stensland could be taken back to Chicago as promptly as possible.

Fined For Protecting Self.

Connecticut's "blue laws" make it a crime to shoot a snake on Sunday, and they also make it a crime to sell or buy the recognized antidote for snake bits.

Walking over his father's farm, on the outskirts of Danbury, last Sunday in search of a lost cow, Peter Zarcone, 18 years old, took his shotgun with him for protection against snakes. Attacked by an adder while he was passing through a swamp, Zarcone shot and killed the reptile. The report of his gun reached the ears of policemen sent out by game wardens to watch for poachers, and they arrested the young farmer.

When Zarcone was arraigned before Justice Howard B. Scott yesterday morning he was fined $10 and costs. The judge said he had no doubt from the nature of the evidence before him that the prisoner had used his gun only to protect himself against the snake, but the laws of the State made it a crime even to carry a gun in the open air on Sunday, and consequently he had no discretion under the law and was obliged to punish him for carrying his weapon across the farm.

The judge arraigned the law severely and suggested that it be brought to the attention of the General Assembly for amendment or repeal. Zarcone will carry the case to the Court of Common Pleas.

Afloat on a Plank.

After floating in midocean on a plank for three days and two nights, James Olsen, of the schooner Twilight, was picked up by the crew of the United States cruiser Minneapolis, fifty miles east of Charleston, last Wednesday at midnight.

Olsen said that the Twilight had capsized early in the morning, with seven men on board. Capt. Fiske, of the cruiser, on the way to Cuba, informed the Navy Department by wireless via St. Augustine yesterday, that although the Minneapolis remained in the vicinity of the wreck until daylight, using all searchlights, no sign of the wreck or survivors could be seen.

Capt. Fiske says that shortly before midnight two men on the Minneapolis heard some one feebly crying for help, and that he stopped the war ship and ordered the searchlights turned on. An hour later Olsen was seen floating on a plank, and was rescued by the life boat. He was exhausted from his fight with the waves for sixty hours, and his strength was so far gone he could have held to the plank only a few hours longer.

The Twilight, Capt. Feddenson, was of 357 tonnage and her home port was Wilmington, Del. She sailed from Charleston September 11, for Philadelphia. She was built at Easthaven, Conn, in 1874.

CODFISH.—New Boneless and Shredded Codfish just received by J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 21, 1906.

ANOTHER Virginia newspaper has come to grief, the Old Dominion Printing Company, publishers of the Charlottesville Morning News, which made its debut last November, having yesterday made an assignment. It has long been recognized that there are too many newspapers in this country already, and many of those being published in the smaller cities and towns have a hard struggle for existence. It's easy enough to start a newspaper, but it's frequently hard enough to keep the thing going. People with ambition to gratify, or with grievances to redress, or with schemes to promote, can easily imagine that a clamorous public demand exists for a new paper in the community. They forget that the reading men or woman don't change their newspaper habits over night any more than they cast off one set of friends and take on another set between sunset and dawn. Millions of dollars have been expended in the United States during the past ten years in starting superfluous papers, in trying to keep their head above water, and in administering hy perdermic injection of cold cash. When the backers get tired of the hopeless struggle, suspension or sale or merger with some other publication takes place. The situation recalls Horace Greeley's poem:

Full of woes;
Starts a paper—
Up she goes."

The business of starting newspapers has been tremendously overdone. In many communities may be found more journals than are needed, more than can be supported and more than the public has any use for. An incidental result is that millions of dollars are annually spent trying to bolster up unprofitable properties.

THE DEMOCRATIC campaign handbook will be issued by the democratic congressional campaign committee next week. It is said that tariff revision and the trusts will be the main topics of discussion in the book. The democratic managers are said to have reached the conclusion that tariff revision is the weak spot in the republican armor, and they are aiming every shaft at it. One of the campaign documents upon which the democratic managers set great store is the compilation of Representative Gaines, of West Virginia, entitled "Stand Pat and Anti-Stand Pat," many hundred thousands of which are being circulated. The document goes back to 1867, quoting eminent republicans as being opposed to permanently maintaining high rates of duty. Lincoln, John Sherman, Allison, Blaine, Garfield, Washburn and many others are cited in remarks tending to indicate the necessity of revision. There is great demand also for the speech of Charles A Towne, which is being distributed in vast numbers. Mr. Towne's speech covers all subjects upon which the democrats desire to touch, from labor to Roosevelt. Up to date the democrats have published and sent out some 12 or 14 speeches and documents, while the republicans, it is understood, have published less than half a dozen. It is also said that the democrats are sending out greater numbers of the different varieties.

ORDERS HAVE been given for the abandonment of Fort Brown at Brownsville, Texas, and Company H of the 26th infantry, the only troops there, has been ordered to Fort Sam Houston, near San Antonio, for station. Company H was sent to Fort Brown when the colored troops of the 25th infantry were ordered from that post to Fort Reno, Okla. The colored troops were transfered because of trouble with the residents of Brownsville, who resented their rude and impertinent conduct toward a number of ladies of that town. The War Department was asked to send white troops there, but, it was said, it was found impracticable to do so. Fort Brown will not likely be reoccupied by troops except in the unlooked-for contingency of trouble with Mexico. This is another instance of the littleness with which army affairs are conducted.

IT HAS OFTEN been observed that on a Jewish holiday there is a virtual cessation of business on the London Stock Exchange, as most of the bankers and brokers of that city are Israelites. While in the United States there is no intermission in business on such occasions, yet the closing of stores, etc., conducted by Jews in America makes a decided change in the activity on the principal streets. This was noticeable in this city yesterday on the Jewish New Year. There are people in Alexandria who can remember when but one descendant of Abraham lived in this city. Numbers are here now who take a prominent part in all enterprises that tend to advance the commercial welfare of the city.

THE VIRGINIA republicans are evidently becoming alarmed lest they lose the Ninth district, for Speaker Cannon, it is announced, will make several speeches in that district during the congressional campaign. But the Speaker will be trespassing upon Secretary Shaw's preserves, for Colonel Slemp has promised the Secretary Virginia's vote in the next republican presidential convention, and his "butting in" in Virginia politics may cause Colonel Slemp some embarrassment.

THE WARM weather has had a depressing effect upon the oyster trade so far but the equinox is at hand and cooler weather may soon be expected, and then the demand for oysters will increase wonderfully.

THE FIRST autumn breezes of last week carried away some of the straw hats, but the owners of these discarded tiles were glad enough to recover them and press them into service again.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

It is not probable that any important constitutional questions will be decided upon by the Supreme Court of the United States at its October term which begins in a few days. This is because there are only eight members on the bench While President Roosevelt offered the vacancy caused by the retirement of Justice Brown to Secretary Taft, the nomination was not sent to Congress, and even should the Secretary accept he would hardly violate the precedent of many years of going on the bench before being confirmed. The court does not relish a close division at any time, and above all things seeks to avoid an equal division. With some important question before it, the court does not want to be tied up with a four-to-four decision. Attorneys before he bar hesitate to argue cases before eight justices for the same reason.

The Navy Department has received a despatch announcing the arrival at Havana of the battleships Louisiana and Virginia, and the cruisers Tacoma and Cleveland. The Minneapolis and the Newark are expected to reach there tonight or tomorrow morning early.

The most formidable fleet of United States warships ever assembled in a Cuban port in peace times is now in Havana harbor and will be further augmented tonight or tomorrow. Two big battleships, Louisiana and Virginia and four cruisers the Denver, Des Moines, Cleveland anp Tacoma are now anchored under the walls of the old Morro Castle. Tonight the Newark with its reserves of marines should arrive and by tomorrow the big battleship, New Jersey and the cruiser Minneapolis will join the fleet. Between them these ships can land a force of 5,000 marines and sailors which would be ample to take possession of the city of Havana and back up any decision reached by Secretary Taft that might require the employment of force. This fleet is under the command of Capt. Albert R. Couden, commanding the Louisiana. While President Roosevelt's letter to the Cuban people urged them to lay aside their differences without the necessity of outside interference, it also laid stress upon the fact that the United States had a duty to perform in case of the Cubans continued fighting. The presence of the American fleet will show them that the United States is ready to do what it undertakes and that President Roosevelt meant what he said when he suggested that he might be forced to take action to restore order even at the price of Cuban Independence. In the meantime preparations are proceeding at the War Department for any eventuality that may arise. Gen. Funston, who will leave here tomorrow to join Secretary Taft in Havana has had a temporary office assigned to him next to that of the Chief of Staff, Gen. Bell, and has been there all morning studying the mass of Cuba. He is being informed of every step in contemplated to meet any emergency that may arise in Cuba demanding the use of United States troops.

"Trusts are increasing at present more rapidly in Great Britain than in the United States," says the Bureau of Manufactures in a publication today, "despite the lack of a protective tariff in the former country." The bureau is led to make this statement after receiving a report from London that a new trust, composed of the whole of the hinge makers of Great Britain, has recently been formed to put an end to underselling.

No Contest of Will.

New York, Sept. 21.—There will be no contest over the will of the late Russell Sage. Senator Brackett, counsel for the heirs of the late financier, so stated today, when the will was offered for probate in the Surrogate's Court. What the terms of the settlement were are to be made public some time today. The Senator intimated that a satisfactory arrangement had been made between the executors of the Sage estate and the heirs-at-law. DeForrest Brothers, attorneys for Mrs. Sage, today issued a statement: "Assuming no contest of Mr. Sage's will, Mrs. Sage has intended and intends to give to each of Mr. Sage's relatives who are beneficiaries under his will an additional amount equal to his or her legacy, and to do this as soon as possible after her qualification as executrix."

Narrow Escape.

New York, Sept. 21.—By the narrowest kind of a margin an accident which would in all probability have cost several lives was averted, today on the course over which the elimination trial in the Vanderbilt cup race will be run tomorrow, through the coolness and daring of Walter White, president of the White Steamer Company. Chrtie making a final practice spin over the course, was tearing along at a mile a minute clip near East Norwich, when Mr. White, in a car with four companions, started across the course. Mr. White had just an instant in which to swing his car around and run it straight into a ditch by the roadside before Chrystie whizzed past. A collision would probably have meant the death of all concerned.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that government bonds are taxable.

In view of complaints made by Americans on the Isle of Pines, the Cuban government has ordered that the searching of houses there be stopped.

During a conversation with a prelate recently, the Pope expressed his determination to issue an interdict against any attempt to organize for worship in France according to the separation law. He said he was powerless to prevent persecution, but he would never tolerate schism.

As J. G. Schmidlapp and his daughter Charlotte, of Cincinnati, were touring yesterday in Provence, France, in an automobile lent by Charles M. Schwab, of New York, the car collided with a cart on the road between Arles and Salon, near St. Martin de Crau. Miss Schmedlapp sustained fatal injuries, and died within an hour after the accident, Mr. Schmidlapp suffering a rib broken. The automobile was wrecked.

The automobile burglars raided Hempstead, Long Island, during the early hour of yesterday morning and carried off $600 in money and silverware and clothing valued at $500 from six houses. There were four men in the gang and they operated from and immense red touring car. This carried no lights and one man, the chauffeur, kept watch while the others ransacked the houses. In addition to the six houses which were entered, the gang attempted to rob two others, but were frightened away before they had succeeded in getting any valuables.

Mr. Bryan in Atlanta.

For one hour and fifteen minutes yesterday afternoon W. J. Bryan addressed an audience of about 7,000 people, gathered at the skating rink of the Ponce de Leon Park in Atlanta, Ga. His reception was cordial and hearty, but it was not widely enthusiastic or more than usually demonstrative. In his address, Mr. Bryan used few arguments or touched upon few subjects that he has not discussed before during his tour of the South.

Mr. Bryan began his address after an introduction by President Lamar Hill, of the Young Men's Democratic League, and by Judge Reuben Arnold, both of whom referred to Mr. Bryan as the next President. He wished he could enter into the appreciation of the prophecies with which he had been introduced, but the experience of past years, he said, took something from the warmth of such appreciation. Prophecy, he declared, is half wish and half environment. He was not sure but that he would be happier as a private citizen than as a holder of office, but he did not propose to await election to do his best for democracy.

A private interview with Hoke Smith, Georgia's next governor, preceded a general reception to the public, which was attended by about 1,500 citizens of Atlanta and other Georgia cities. Yesterday evening a "democratic dollar dinner," attended by 400 citizens, closed a busy day.

Mrs. Bryan was the guest of the society ladies of Atlanta at several functions more or less formal.

The party boarded their car at midnight, leaving for Birmingham, where Mr. Bryan will speak today, going thence to Jackson, Miss.

Daring Deed of Robbers.

Eight masked and heavily armed burglars held the people of White Cloud, a village 45 miles north of Grand Rapids, Mich., early yesterday, while they rifled the Newaygo County Bank, and attempted also to rob the bank of R. Gannon & Son. The eight men rode into the town of White Cloud between 12 and 1 o'clock and surrounded the building containing the two banks and posted guards outside, while other members of the gang worked inside. The interior of the Newayo County Bank was completely wrecked by two explosions. The burglars got between $2,000 and $4,000 in cash. Dynamite was then used to wreck the interior of the bank, but while the cracksmen were at work at the bank the townspeople, wakened by the explosions, gathered, until there were so many of them present that the guards evidently decided it was not prudent to wait longer. They called out the men working in the bank before they could get the safe open, and, covering the citizens with guns, rode out of town on horseback.

Pearls Worth $53,000.

Judge Elbert Gary, chairman of the Steel Trust directorate, who arrived in New York from Europe a few days ago, brought with him two pearls which are appraised at $52,000. They are intended as presents for Mrs. Gary. The steel man had made his declaration to the customs official, and that person was about to turn away when Mr. Gary remarked in a careless manner: "Here are a couple of pearls I was to declare. They cost me $53,000 in France." Then he drew from a pocket the two gems, which were not so very large at that, and handed them over. At the appraiser's office the value was fixed at $52,000, the odd $1,000 being taken off as an evidence of good will.

Today's Telegraphic News

Want Annexation.

Havana, Sept. 21.—Indications today are that it is with the insurgent armies in the field that Secretary Taft must ultimately arrange the peace settlement rather than with representatives of the liberal party, if hostilities in the island are to be suspended permanently. This will render the task of President Roosevelt's emissaries more difficult than it would be to deal only with the liberals.

Pino Guerra, commander of the largest insurgent army, voiced the sentiment of nearly all the rebels in the field in a declaration today, saying he would not lay down his arms until the American peace commissioners gave substantial guarantees that new elections shall be held speedily. Promises from Palma unless guaranteed by the United States, Guerra declared, he would not consider. Hitherto Secretary Taft has dealt with no insurgents. The rebels have not been so recognized, and it was the plan of the American secretaries to avoid recognizing them. Senator Zayas has acted as their spokesman, but in the guise of a liberal politician.

Business men of the city are expected to have a strong influence in bringing about a settlement. From them Secretary Taft will probably be able to learn more about the real situation, from an impartial standpoint, than he has from any of the moderate or liberal politicians so far heard.

For the most part the business men favor annexation. They will not be encouraged in this stand, but will be asked to give their ideas as to what really led to the insurrection, and what terms would restore order and peace.

Havana, Sept. 21.—La Discicion publishes a dispatch from Cienfuegos saying that sailors from the American gunboat Mariet a, who were garrisoned at the Soledad sugar estate, have been fired on by rebels. The Americans returned the fire and the rebels fled.

Explosion of Dynamite.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 21.—A carload of dynamite exploded at Jellico at 8:30 o'clock this morning, on the Kentucky State line, sixty-six miles north of Knoxville, while being switched within 100 yards of the Louisville & Nashville depot. The report was terrific and the entire business section of the place was damaged to an amount estimated at $1,000,000. Many business houses were totally destroyed and others badly wrecked. Details are difficult to secure, but nine men are known to be dead, and probably 100 injured, many of them slightly. A special train has been sent from here with doctors, Louisville & Nashville and Southern Railroad officials and others.

Every warehouse in Jellico along the Louisville and Nashville railroad is totally destroyed and nearly every store in the town is either blown to pieces or damaged to such an extent that it is a ruin. The entire third floor of the Carmathen Inn, a large brick hotel structure, was blown off. It is believed that no prominent white people, business or professional men, or their families, are included in the death list. Jellico has nearly 4,000 population and is dependent mostly for its commercial life on the surrounding mines.

Another dispatch says that it is now known that at least fifteen people are probably dead and from 50 to 75 are more or less seriously injured.

Trouble in Republican Camp.

New York, Sept. 21.—In the republican political camp there was a new turn of affairs this morning in a strong effort in certain quarters to get Governor Higgins to withdraw from the race for renomination in favor of a nominee of his own. It seemed to be admitted that Higgins could control the convention if he wanted to, but that for various party reasons he ought to do the sacrificial limb act and get out. One argument was that the contest is liable to close, and any man who has been governor must have of necessity made a good many enemies inside the party. A fresh candidate, therefore, it was urged, would come nearer holding the full party vote.

This morning there was talk that if Governor Higgins should decide not to run, he would transfer his support to Linn Bruce, the present Lieutenant Governor.

Who will succeed Odell as chairman of the republican state committee is another subject which agitates the political prophet. William Barnes, of Brooklyn, is more frequently mentioned than anyone else. President Roosevelt, however, is said to prefer Tim Woodruff, of Brooklyn.

New York Democrats

New York, Sept. 21.—As the Hearst fight inside the democratic party grows hotter, its issue becomes more uncertain. Mr. Hearst's morning paper today leads its political news with a headline declaring that the Ryan-Belmont ring is pouring out money to buy the democratic convention. In the article it is declared that $15,000 was sent to Syracuse and employed there yesterday in shutting out Hearst sentiment by snap conventions and gag rule. It is further alleged that "Billy" Sheehan was responsible for Norman E Mack, the Buffalo editor and national committeeman, going back on Hearst.

The Press, the independent republican morning paper, claims to have discovered that Tammany is shifting from Hearst. Patrick H. McCarren, leader of the Brooklyn democratic machine, is said to have again brought forward Judge Gaynor, of Brooklyn, for nomination for Governor, and to have strongly urged upon Murphy the Tammany boss. McCarren is using the party regularity argument with considerable effect.

Another strong emphasized editorial in the World, for the third time asks the question, "Shall the democratic party die?"

Urges Annexation.

Tokio, Sept. 21—Annexation of Cuba by the United States is urged by the Jiji, in an editorial today, which may be said to express the opinion of many persons throughout Japan. The paper says that Cuba's nominal independence at present is not beneficial to the majority of Cubans, and it is a source of danger to other nations.

It is announced that the Wabash system has not only arranged to have a Philadelphia terminal, but has already secured it. In other words, the Wabash terminal will be within fifteen feet of the Broad street station of the Pennsylvania.

Saved from a Mob.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 21.—Only by a mad dash in a big touring car at midnight from Fort McPherson to the tower in Atlanta, a distance of four miles, saved Will Troy, the suspected assailant of Mrs. John A. Kemmel, from the hands of a mob last night. The negro was captured in Oakland City, the scene of the assault, at 10 o'clock. At 11 o'clock a mob stormed the jail and took him out. It was while the five hundred armed men were en route to the Kemmel home for the purpose of having Mrs. Kemmel identify the man that Marshal Ryan and county officers stepped into the mob and yanked the negro into the fort reservation which the mob was passing. A member of the mob shot at Marshal Ryan, but Officer Wright knocked the gun up and the shot went into the air. The firing attracted the guard on patrol, and the negro was rushed to the federal guard house, the mob not daring to fool with federal troops.

The fort officers and Governor Terrell, who were at the banquet tendered William J. Bryan, were communicated with and they ordered out the State troops. Adjutant Burton Smith, who was toastmaster, called out companies A, K and L and special street cars were rushed to the armory to take them out. Sheriff Nelms and Deputies Daniel and McDonald rushed back to the fort and persuaded the officers to let them put the negro in the bottom of a touring car. In a wild flight, the touring car with its occupants crouching low and running at a rate of fifty miles an hour, shot through the mob, narrowly missing some. No shots were fired, the mob never suspecting the machine carried the negro. The special trolley cars were met, the situation was explained by the sheriff and the troops returned to their armory.

This is the seventh assault which has been committed upon a white woman by a negro in the past six months.

While Troy was being rushed to safety from the mob Luther Frazier, a negro, aged 21, entered the home of T. L. Bryan, on Courtland street, last night, not a dozen blocks from the place where W. J. Bryan's banquet was being held, and after driving the older women from the house attempted to assault Miss Bryan, aged 18, and was only perverted from accomplishing his purpose by the girl jumping into a closet and locking the door from the inside.

It was the most daring attempt ever made in Georgia, and the women of Atlanta are today in frenzy of terror at the boldness of the crime. The women are alone in the house when the negro walked boldly in and grabbed at Miss Bryan. The mother and other daughter who were near an open door dashed out and began screaming. Miss Orrie Bryan jumped into the closet and locked the door.

The negro grabbed a heavy shoe tree and began beating on the door in an effort to break down and get at his victim. The mother's screams attracted officers who rushed in and caught the negro in the act of beating on the door. He was bound over under $5,000 bond for assault with intent to rape.

Searching for Yeggmen.

Portland, Me., Sept. 21.—All of southwestern Maine and southeast eastern New Hampshire is aroused by a man hunt which equals the desperado cases of the west. Sheriff Pennell, who has charge of the search, says that the line of hunters extends for 50 miles, and is constantly being reinforced by volunteer woodsmen, hunters, and farmers. Several hundred armed men and boys are scouring the woods of Cumberland county for two desperate yeggmen who looted the postoffice at Bridgeton, Tuesday night, and shot Inspector Robinson, in a midnight fight at West Baldwin. So many men have left their homes in the hunt that women have been practically deserted. Terror stricken in the thought that the hunted men might descend upon their homes, these women, armed themselves, and today there is hardly a home throughout the section being hunted but what has a rifle or gun within handy reach of the female occupants. Last night women slept with guns beside their beds, and those who could not obtain weapons were guests of those more fortunate.

Burning Steamer Sighted.

New York, Sept. 21.—Captain Dickers, of the Holland-American line steamer Prinz Willem II., came into port today from the West Indes with the story of having sighted a burning vessel at sea on Thursday morning. The captain said that on Wednesday last he came upon a steamer, a small one, which was ablaze from stem to stern. He sailed around the craft for some time, but saw nothing of the crew who had apparently left the scene in the life boats sometime before. The true position of the wreck, which will be a dangerous obstruction to navigation, was latitude 26 north, longitude 74 06.

Judge Appointed.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, who spent the night at Sagamore Hill, announced today the appointment of Joseph Buffington for the vacancy on the Third United States circuit, which comprises the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey. Judge Buffington is at present United States judge of the Western district of Pennsylvania. Former Judge Nathaniel Ewing, of Fayette county, will succeed Judge Buffington on the district bench.

Another Cup Challenger.

London, Sept. 21.—"I am going into the matter of another cup challenger thoroughly while in America, and I think it most probable that I will try once more to lift the trophy although as yet I have decided on nothing definite," said Sir Thomas Lipton before leaving London on the Celtic.

Another Plot Against the Czar.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 21.—Another plot against the life of the Czar has been disclosed through the arrest of fourteen social democrats who were taken into custody last night. The exact nature of the plot is kept secret. The prisoners will be tried by court martial.

Anarchy in Vladivostock.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 21.—A virtual reign of anarchy prevails at Vladivostok, and it is charged that officials who should have used their power to quell the troubles have been instrumental in inciting them and are engaged in wholesale peculations from the government. This is the information received by the government in secret reports from the city. For over a month it is asserted high officials have been engaged in stealing government stores. In order to maintain their rule of disorder, officials have thrown every one who objected to their methods into jail. The naval and military authorities are at swords points, adding to the terror of the situation. Any steps taken by one branch of the service to put an end to disorders is promptly checked by the other force. Recently a military officer from the transport Aleut, lying in the harbor, was arrested for assaulting women in the streets. The captain of the Aleut sent an ultimatum to the naval commander demanding the release of the officer under threat to bombard the city. No time was lost in releasing the officer.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 21.—Peasants in the neighborhood of Elizabethgrad have raided the estate of a rich landlord, killed him, plundered his storehouses and stole 300,000 roubles. They distributed the money among the starving villagers. Seven policemen were killed in a conflict with peasants at Multany, in the Mulmyzh district, in revenge for the arrest of a revolutionary agitator.

St. Petersburg, Sept 21.—The terrorist who have been using an automobile in their efforts to get within striking distance of their victims were seized in their car near the palace of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholcivitch. By this capture the police believe they have removed one of the greatest dangers to officials in St. Petersburg.

Extradition Papers Signed.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 21.—Governor Stokes today signed a warrant for the extradition of Paul O. Stensland, the Chicago embezzler, from this state to Illinois. The papers were applied for by a messenger from Governor Dineen, of Illinois, and the application was made on the basis that Stensland is expected to be within the jurisdiction of New Jersey, soon. It is expected that the Prinz Adelbert, the vessel in which Stensland is being brought to this country, from Morocco, will land at Hoboken tomorrow or Sunday.

Decision Averse to Emperor William.

Berlin, Sept. 21.—A solar plexus blow was administered to Kaiser Wilhelm today in the court at Insterburg, when a decision adverse to the Emperor's contention was rendered in a suit instituted against a farmer named Keilway by his majesty. Keilway rented a farm which was part of the Emperor's estate and was notified to vacate before the contract period had expired. He refused to move and the Kaiser filed suit to evict him. The court however, upheld Keilway's claim to remain on the farm and the Kaiser loses.

Anniversary Celebration.

Alexandria Council, No. 33, Junior Order United American Mechanics, last evening celebrated its sixteenth anniversary in an appropriate manner. The council met at an earlier hour than usual and transacted its routine business, after which the doors were thrown open and those that were to participate in the exercises were admitted together with a number of friends of members of the order. The council chamber was brilliantly illuminated and decorated with United States flags. Mr. James R. Mansfield, Past State Councilor of Virginia, called the assemblage to order and after having stated the object of the meeting and other matters concerning the order the following programme was carried out:

Singing, "My Country 'Tis of Thee;" selection by Ideal Musical Club; brief review of the council's organization and work for the past sixteen years, L. D. Lyles; instrumental duet, Messrs. Wade and Biddle; recitation, O. H. Daniels; reading, O. F. Baggett; selection by Ideal Musical Club; address, Mr. James R. Caton; instrumental duet, Messrs. Wade and Biddle; address, James W. Jones, of Vienna, State Councilor of Virginia; selection by Ideal Musical Club.

The exercises throughout were of a high order. The addresses of Messrs. James R Caton, of this city, and James A. Jones, of Vienna were especially appropriate and called for repeated applause. They were highly edifying.

After the programme was carried out refreshments were served, followed by a smoker. The member of Belle Haven Council, No 61, of this city, attended in a body.

At the conclusion of the evening's exercises a flash light picture of the assemblage was taken by Mr. Jamison. The Ideal Musical Club rendered some very pretty selections, which called for several encores. This club is composed of some talented young musicians, and are continually adding honors to their organization at every performance. All who attended are profuse in their praises of the evening's exercises and left with pleasant memories of the sixteenth anniversary of Alexandria Council. The committee having in charge the anniversary exercises were Messrs. T. W. Ebhart, W. D. Zimmerman, J. T. Peverill, J. W. Wills, and J. R. Mansfield.

> This post marks the spot where 13 sailors from the British sloop-of-war Pender were drowned by the capsizing of the ship's cutter during the war of 1812.

At the time the drowning occurred the Potomac river, between King and Cameron streets, on the west side of Lee street, between King and Cameron. All the ground upon which the number [illegible] and buildings on Union street now stand was subsequently reclaimed.

Fined for Fighting.

Frank Wood and Lizzie Jones, both colored, engaged in a fight on south Pitt street yesterday evening which caused considerable excitement for a time. The woman, who is as black as the Queen of Dahomey, and as vigorous as an Amazon, soon proved to the spectators that she was able to take care of herself, as she landed a brick against the head of her adversary. Wood went to the station house and lodged complaint against the woman and was locked up by Chief Goods and Officer Roberts. The woman was arrested by Officers Garvey and Ferguson. This morning in the Police Court she was fined $5 by Justice Caton. Wood failed to appear. He had been released, his employer becoming his surety, and, according to the ruling, he forfeited $5.

Dangerous Amusement.

Officer Henderson yesterday arrested a youth named Frank Beavers for discharging a rifle at pigeons on Cameron street, near Fairfax. The boy had, it was alleged, on another occasion, amused himself by discharging the weapon at sparrows, and it was charged that a ball from the rifle had broken a window in the neighborhood. He was fined $2 by Justice Caton this morning, and was told that should he be taken in custody again on such a charge that the fine would be materially increased. The officers will arrest all persons caught diverting themselves in this manner in the streets of the city. It is a dangerous amusement and parents should see that such playthings are kept out of the hands of children.

The Weather.

There were indications of rain at the close of yesterday, but the clouds passed around this city and settled over the vicinity of Shepherd's, on the opposite side of the river. There was but a bare suspicion of rain in this city and the clouds were soon dissipated. The sunset was beautiful and the clear blue sky reflecting in the river made the Potomac, which was dish-calm, resemble a Swiss lake. There was but little change, however, in the temperature and the weather continued sultry. Similar conditions prevailed today.

Pulled Child from the Track.

A little girl had a narrow escape from being ground to death by a freight train on Fayette street, near King, yesterday evening. The child was on the track apparently unaware of the fact that the train was moving toward her, when a gentleman who was standing on the pavement in front of the Ramer Hotel, realizing the little one's peril, ran and pulled her from the rails in time to save her life.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Seven women, charged with abusive language, were dismissed, the complainant failing to appear.

John Parnell, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with escaping from jail, had 20 days added to his sentence.

Lizzie Jones, colored, arrested by Officers Garvey and Ferguson charged with assaulting Frank Wood, was fined $5.

A young man, arrested by Officers Garvey and Ferguson for being drunk in the street, was dismissed with an admonition.

Evelyn Culpeper and Maggie Young, both colored, arrested by Officer Ferguson for fighting, were fined $2.50 each.

Death of Capt. Forbes.

As stated in the Gazette of yesterday, Capt. Joseph Harris Forbes, of Annapolis, died Tuesday night at the residence of his son, Mr. George Forbes, Roland Park, Baltimore, after an illness lasting several months. Captain Forbes was born in St. Mary's county, Maryland, on December 20, 1837. He was a son of Col. George Forbes and Mary Eleanor Harris. In the early summer of 1861, at the outset of the civil war, he cast his lot with the South by joining Andrews' Battery, the First Maryland Artillery, as a private, at Fredericksburg, Va He was very soon appointed quartermaster sergeant, and by strict and satisfactory attention to his important duties rose to the rank of captain and assistant quartermaster, and finally received his parole at Appomattox. Captain Forbes was married in 1872 to Mrs. Fannie Lightfoot Tayloe, daughter of the late William H. Fowle, of Alexandria, and the widow of Capt. Bladen T. Tayloe, of King George county, Va.

Killed by a Train.

Daniel Ferguson, colored, fifty years old, was run over in the yards of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, near New York and Florida avenues, Washington, yesterday morning, and died of his injuries shortly after he had been removed to the Emergency Hospital. Ferguson had been employed about the yards as a coal passer. He was standing upon a switch alongside of one of the cars shoveling coal when he was struck by a freight train that was backing. Ferguson was caught under the trucks and the wheels passed over one of his legs and his arms. His chest was also badly crushed. The deceased formerly lived in Alexandria, and his remains will be brought here for interment.

The New Electric Plant.

The Alexandria Electric Company is making preliminary arrangements for the construction of their plant on the premises of the Osage Manufacturing Company (the square bounded by Wolfe, Wilkes and Union streets and the Potomac river). Carpenters have been employed who will begin work as soon as the deeds for the property shall have been prepared. It is said that the company will utilize for their plant the large building recently erected south of the old structure by the Vulcanizing Company. The building used by Smith & Perkins in the construction of locomotives, facing Wilkes street, will be used by the company for offices, etc.

Shot at Burglars.

About 1½ o'clock last night considerable excitement was caused on west Cameron street by Mr. Merten Steelman, who endeavored to shoot a burglar who was attempting to enter his house, No. 907. The intruder was on the roof of a back building when discovered by Mr. Steelman. The latter procured his pistol and discharged the weapon at the would-be burglar, when the latter jumped from the shed and escaped. Mr. Steelman is almost sure one of the balls from his pistol struck the man. He cannot say whether he was white or black.

Accused Dismissed

Several women, residents of north Lee street, were cited appear in the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of abusive language which had been preferred by another woman. The defendants were all present when the case was called, but the complainant was non est inventus. The accused were according dismissed.

Personal.

Mrs Julia M. Cochran, who has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Lewis, at Charlottesville, returned to her home in this city yesterday.

Miss Sibyl Smoot has gone to Baltimore where she has entered the Woman's College.

Mr. W. D. Hawley, manager of the Enterprise Publishing House of Culpeper, was in this city yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Fisher will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church next Sunday at both the morning and night services. His little daughter, who had recently been sick, is improving.

Mr. Charles Graham was taken suddenly ill at Mr. E. Goldsmith store today and had to be sent to the hospital in the ambulance.

Negro Suspects.

Three negro men are now held in the Alexandria county jail, at Fort Myer Heights, as suspects in the recent assaults near Luna Park. The third arrest was made Wednesday afternoon, when Constable Pennypacker took George Young into custody. Miss Mabel Risley, a victim of one of the assaults, will likely go to the Alexandria county jail today to see the men who are held as suspects. When Luna Park opened, "Cap" Turner acted as a watchman over teams and automobiles that were left by their owners near the scene of the two assaults, and subsequently turned the job over to Young. Both men are said to have been in the neighborhood when Settle and Miss Bywater and Gooding and Miss Risley were attacked, and Gaskins, who was arrested in Prince George county, Md., is also believed to have been not far distant. Miss Risley is reported to have said that she would be able to identify her assailant. As a result of the two assaults near Luna Park and the criminal assault committed upon Miss Peverill near Arlington Junction about two years ago, the board of supervisors of Alexandria county, it is reported, will be petitioned to appropriate a sufficient sum to purchase two bloodhounds, to be kept at the county jail for such emergencies.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

A cave-in is reported at Centre and Soho streets, Pittsburg, Pa., and five men reported killed.

It is stated in New York on good authority that the net earnings of the American Ice Company for the month of August alone were equal to more than four per cent on the capital stock of the company.

Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst has returned to New York from his usual summer vacation abroad, and already the politicians and police officials, as well as other alleged grafters are taking notice.

The United Metals Selling Company in New York has put the price of electrolytic copper at 19 cents per pound, an advance of four cents per pound.

Another Protest.

Former Senator James K. Jones has entered his protest against the government ownership plan of Mr. Bryan. It became known yesterday that Senator Jones, who, during both of Mr. Bryan's campaigns for the presidency, was chairman of the national committee, had sent a letter to Mr. Bryan, urging him to drop public ownership and make his fight for the enforcement of the law now in force, especially the new rate law. There has been no more ardent supporter of Mr Bryan than Senator Jones, and their friendship has been not only political, but personal as well. It was to Senator Jones that Mr. Bryan wrote his letter from Europe in which he indicated he might again run for the presidency if his party wished him to. The loyalty of Senator Jones to Mr. Bryan was such that many supposed he would be willing to accept his government ownership issue.

Accident to a Philadelphian.

Paris, Sept. 21.—In an attempt on a bet to beat a train from Bellevue to Sevres with his automobile, J. Clarkett, a rich resident of Philadelphia, met with an accident and received serious injuries to his head. The road down which he drove his motor car was precipitous, and in making a turn the machine ran off the bank, giving the driver a bad spill.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 21.—The expectation of early action by the Secretary of the Treasury to relieve the money market tension caused a strong tone at the opening and in the opening trading, but later the room had the outside speculative element and became bearish and stocks were freely offered at declining prices, except in cases where there was apparent support buying and bull manipulation. Southern Pacific was made a leader on the bull side and sold as high at 67¾, a new high record. Interests still at it with E. H. Harriman said that the accumulation of Southern Pacific on this advance was based chiefly on information that arrangements have been made to retire the preferred stock. St. Paul opened ¼ higher at 178 and declined to 177¼ under arbitrage trading against St. Paul rights. Rubber showed strength, advancing 1¼ to 56; Smelting rose 1¼ per cent, to 156½; and National Lead 1¼ to 80¼. The general list was neglected and generally lower. London traded on a small scale and was not a factor in market movements.

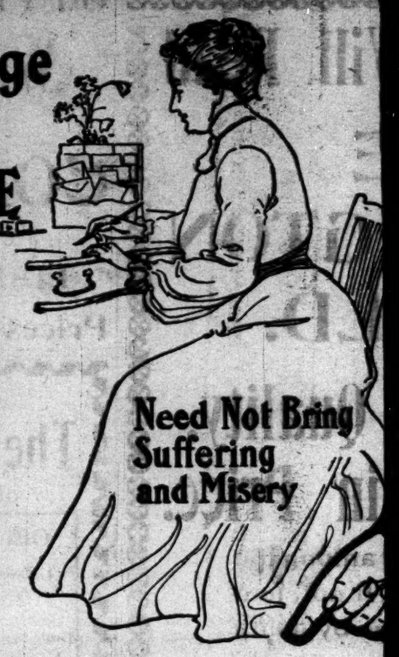
Change of LIFE



Need Not Bring Suffering and Misery

This perfectly natural change in a woman's life is too often accompanied by painful, distressing symptoms due to female troubles and slight irregularities in her delicate organism.

The woman who passes this change without the development of tumors, cancers, or chronic invalidism enters a new field of happiness and usefulness in the domestic circle and in social activity. Her physical system should receive the necessary assistance at this critical period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

is exactly suited to woman's needs at this time. It strengthens and cures all derangements of the female organism, it overcomes the hot flashes and dizzy fainting spells, and all other distressing symptoms.

I Was in Bed for Three Weeks

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered a great deal during Change of Life. For eleven weeks I had hemorrhages and it made me so weak I was in bed for three weeks. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, although it was against my doctor's will and I had to hide it. I took it regularly until I had taken five bottles, and it brought me out all right, a perfectly strong, well woman. Any one can tell how healthy I am by looking at my picture, and any one can write to me or my daughter about our wonderful cures.

MRS. F. M. MUSHRUSH, East Chicago, Ind.

The whole secret of safety at this time of life is thorough preparation before the change begins. Fortify the system with a course of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This wonderful medicine has carried thousands of women through this danger period.

No such helpful advice to women who are sick can be had anywhere as will be received free by addressing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Alleged Fatal Beating.

Mrs. Willie Nance, wife of William Nance, of near Piney Fork, Pittsylvania county, died from a severe beating alleged to have been administered by her husband Wednesday night. Nance came home early in the night, it is charged, and commenced beating his wife, who, after a while, succeeded in getting away from him. She took refuge under a bed in the room from which she was dragged by her infuriated husband, who continued to rain blows upon his helpless victim until a neighbor went to her rescue, the story goes. Her face was a mass of bruises and so discolored as to be almost beyond recognition. Her husband's clothing was spattered with blood He stoutly denies any knowledge of the crime, and says he cannot recall any happening since Wednesday afternoon when he and his wife returned from visiting relatives. Nance and his wife were given to imbibing, and fights were not uncommon at their home. Mrs. Nance was about forty-three years old, while her husband was a few years her senior. Nance was arrested at his home yesterday afternoon and remanded to jail to await a preliminary hearing. The coroner's inquisition was held at the scene of the murder. The fight at the Nance home was witnessed by only one man, who refuses to talk until put upon the witness stand.

Good for the cough, removes the cold, the cause of the cough. That's the work of Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the original laxative cough syrup. Contains no opiates. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Corners Wife, Then Shoots.

Mrs. Mary Allison, of West Bradford, Pa., was shot and seriously wounded by her husband, William Allison, Tuesday afternoon, and the latter has disappeared, while the police are scouring the country for him. The story is that when Allison returned to his home that afternoon, at the Edward Ingram farm, he found another man enjoying the smiles of his wife, and as soon as possible he procured a shotgun and opened fire upon the woman. The man made good his escape. There was a lively chase after Allison by the police and a posse, but he had not been found at a late hour last night.
